

What community need did the young person in this video identify?
And how did they take action to help fill that need?

What are some needs that you see in your community? Are they similar or different from what you saw in the video?

Did this young person encounter any challenges? How did they face and overcome the challenge?

What do you think it means to be a young hero?

What message do you think this young person was trying to relay to other kids?
