

IYH VIDEO SERIES

Grace Sun - Melodies for Remedies Discussion Questions

What community need did Grace recognize? How did she take action to bring her school community together to meet this need?

How does Melodies for Remedies make their concerts specialized for those living with Alzheimer's and dementia?

Grace used her passion for music to connect with seniors in her community. What talents and hobbies do you have, and how could you use them within your community?

Grace stated that her school was a great support system for her to help Melodies for Remedies come to life. Can you identify any resources or people in your life that can help you make a difference?

How does music connect you to your family, friends, or members of your community?
