

Arsh, Zoe, Reed, and Jonah all have different art specialties, from painting to playing music. What type of art do you enjoy the most and why?

---

---

---

---

---

Zoe and Reed discuss the unifying and universal power of art. How have you seen art bring people together?

---

---

---

---

---

Zoe highlights the importance of following your dreams. What causes or issues are you passionate about? How could art play a role in addressing that issue or educating people about the problem?

---

---

---

---

---

Reed talks about the unexpected connection between music and environmental activism. Are there places or programs in your community that use art as a force for good?

---

---

---

---

---

Arsh describes art as a "healing medium." Have you ever used a form of art to express your feelings? Was it helpful?

---

---

---

---

---