ENVIRONMENTAL ETHICS & CLIMATE CHANGE

Discussion Questions

Isha, Jaden, and Madhvi are all addressing climate justice and environmental ethics in their own unique way. How are they each approaching the problem? Did one method stand out to you?

Isha talks about environmental racism and what it means. Are there specific examples of environmental racism happening in your own community or state?

Jaden talks about the impact that you can have as one person. What is a cause that you are passionate about where you can start to make a difference?

Have you witnessed environmental or climate justice initiatives in your own community?
